

EDUCATION AS FORMATION

The formation of the individual teacher & student, & institutional formation

Course Dates: 19th July to 3rd October, 2021 or by request & on-demand

This course has been designed to give you access to some of the current thinking on the formation of the individual teacher and student, as well as institutional formation. It is specifically designed for teachers professing a faith, as the research incorporates the concept of spiritual coherence as a key contributor to formation.

Created for Teachers working at Proficient Level

LEADING FROM WITHIN:

The challenges of middle-leadership in a faith-based school

Course Dates: 19th July to 5th December, 2021 or by request & on-demand

This course challenges leaders and aspiring leaders to reflect on their own practice as leaders and their personal skill set as well as identifying an area for personal improvement, setting improvement goals and changing their individual practice to achieve these goals.

Created for Teachers working at Lead Level

*This course has a fee by negotiation. Contact pl@edcomm.org.au

EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP:

Meeting the challenges of executive-leadership in faith-based schools

Course Dates: 19th July to 5th December, 2021 or by request & on-demand

This course challenges leaders and aspiring leaders to reflect on the significance of vision and values in driving the everyday practices of a school. They will consider how the mission statement and espoused values of their school address current popular culture and how they affect the day to day practices in the school.

Created for Teachers working at Lead Level

*This course has a fee by negotiation. Contact pl@edcomm.org.au

SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT FOR ALL PUPILS

The contribution of worldview education

Course Dates: 26th July to 15th August, 2021 (Proficient), 26th July to 5th September, 2021 (Lead) or by request & on-demand

The course has been designed to give you access to some of the current thinking on addressing the spiritual growth of all students in your class, acknowledging their multi-faith backgrounds and with a heart to want students to understand the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Courses created for Teachers working at Proficient Level and Lead Level

Online courses are complimentary for EdComm Member Schools and Individual Members.* Find out more at edcomm.org.au/pl

ANXIOUS HEADS, TROUBLED HEARTS:

Exploring anxiety in self and others

Course Dates: 2nd to 30th August, 2021 or by request & on-demand

The current COVID-19 pandemic and the associated lock down and job losses are having a widespread impact in our society and anxiety disorders are increasing as a direct result of this situation. The course aims to build the resilience and the personal skill set of teachers to enable them to better care for themselves and their students in the pandemic environment.

Created for Teachers working at Proficient Level

EXPOSED:

The effect of pornography and sexualised media on students

Course Dates: 2nd August to 19th Sept, 2021 or by request & on-demand

This course has been designed to give you access to some of the current research on the effects of pornography on students and to provide some resources for dealing meaningfully with this issue with both students and parents.

Created for Teachers working at Proficient Level

HUMAN RESPONSIBILITY AMID GLOBAL COMPLEXITY :

Is there a Christian approach to teaching the Humanities?

Course Dates: 9th August to 12th Sept, 2021 or by request & on-demand

This course explores the idea of perspective being hidden in all knowledge and the power within the Humanities subjects to engage these perspectives with a Christian worldview. He challenges teachers to seek out opportunities to develop critical thinking in their students, to explore the 'So what?' question and develop an understanding of the 'why' of what they are learning.

Created for Teachers working at Proficient Level

SURVIVING & THRIVING IN THE NEW NORMAL

Course Dates: 16th August to 26th Sept, 2021 or by request & on-demand

During the stresses from the COVID-19 pandemic and the added responsibilities on teachers to develop and facilitate home-based learning programs, learning resilience skills are especially relevant. The course will step you through eight skills and give you the opportunity to practise each skill in your own situation as you work toward skill mastery and a new level of personal resilience. You will also learn to implement the skills in your classroom or pastoral care group to help students of any age to grow their resilience.

Created for Teachers working at Proficient Level

Online courses are complimentary for EdComm Member Schools and Individual Members.* Find out more at edcomm.org.au/pl

JOURNEYS TO LEADERSHIP:

Insights from research and practice

Course Dates: 16th August to 5th Sept, 2021 or by request & on-demand

This course draws on a collection of recent research into the career trajectories of teachers from the classroom to the principalship. Using this research as a framework, couched within the broader international literature, together with AITSL professional standards frameworks, participants reflect on their own leadership journey and what is now required to prepare for, and sustain oneself, in informal and formal leadership roles in schools.

Created for Teachers working at Proficient Level

THE COSMOS & THE CLASSROOM

Course Dates: 23rd August to 19th Sept, 2021 or by request & on-demand

In this Post-Modern, secular age, Science is often elevated to the only source of truth. This course explores the wonders and the limitations of Science in a secular age. It draws on scientific knowledge and theological insight and argument to explore the wonder of the universe. Teachers are encouraged to promote a sense of awe by raising awareness of these features, to explore the nature of scientific truth as well as its limitations, and to consider how they can authentically use Science to help students be prepared to critique the secular understanding of truth.

Created for Teachers working at Proficient Level

RESILIENT TEACHING:

Struggling well with hopeful perseverance

Course Dates: 30th August to 21st Nov, 2021 or by request & on-demand

This course is for teachers and leaders who have an interest in becoming more resilient and enabling the growth of resilience in their school and their students. It has been designed to give access to some of the current thinking on Resilience and to give a structured and resourced program to use to support your learning.

Created for Teachers working at Proficient Level

WORKSHOP:

Integrating faith and work

Course Dates: 30th August to 19th Sept, 2021 or by request & on-demand

This course has been designed to give access to some of the current thinking on how to understand the integration of faith and work from a Biblical perspective. It is specifically designed for teachers professing a faith, as the research incorporates the concept of work as a form of worship.

Created for Teachers working at Proficient Level

Online courses are complimentary for EdComm Member Schools and Individual Members.* Find out more at edcomm.org.au/pl